Union Biblical Seminary,

Cor. First Street and Euclid Avenue (West Side),

FOUNDED IN 1871.

This institution is the only theological school of the United Brethren Church. The building is a brick structure, well furnished and heated; it contains dormitories for the accommodation of thirty young men, and other capacity sufficient for 100 students.

The tuition is free. To pay for cleaning and heating rooms a small incidental fee is charged.

By comparison, the attendance at this seminary is found to be about twelve per cent above the average attendance in the 138 theological institutions of the United States.

Since the opening the seminary has graduated 169 persons, and given instruction to about that number who were unable to continue to completion.

FINANCIAL STATUS.

The assets of the institution are:

Building and grounds	$ 38,000 00
Endowment	129,000 00
Library	3,200 00
Contingent assets	38,000 00
Total	$208,200 00

Facts About Dayton.

Population	70,000
Protestant churches	59
Catholic churches	6

Dayton ranks third in the state as a manufacturing city. Many of these manufactories have more than local significance, such as the Barney & Smith Car Works and the National Cash Register Company.

Among the places of interest to visitors may be mentioned the Public Library, Insane Asylum, Children's Home, Cemetery, and Soldiers' Home, adjacent to the city on the west.

The Central Branch of the National Soldiers' Home was established at Dayton in 1867. Six other similar homes are located in different portions of the country, so that in all the National Board of Managers now controls seven homes, containing about 13,000 inmates, whose maintenance costs annually over $1,800,000. The appropriation for the Central Home for the present fiscal year is $732,773.05. At present the enrollment of inmates is 5,396. Strange as it may seem, the time has not yet come for a decrease in the attendance, but on the other hand, there has been a steady increase of ten per cent in the average attendance for each year since the Home was established.

The entire area now occupied by buildings, cemetery, park, etc., is 640 acres. The Home may be reached either over the White Line (electric) or over the Fifth Street and Red Lines, or by the Home Railroad.

UNITED BRETHREN AT THE WORLD'S FAIR.

LOCATION. The denomination has been assigned space in the northwest corner of the gallery of the Liberal Arts Department. It is in the main aisle across the building from east to west, a few feet east of the American Bible Society. It occupies an alcove in connection with the Seventh Day Baptists. It is prominent and can easily be found.

EXHIBIT. In the small space assigned, it was possible to show only the work of the Publishing House and its publications, a number of the leading colleges and churches, charts of all the departments of Church work, and specimens of work done by young people in the various foreign missions.

HEADQUARTERS. By amicable arrangement with our neighbors, the Seventh Day Baptists, comfortable seats and tables have been provided by which the space becomes a rendezvous for members of the Church. All United Brethren visitors are requested to go at once to these headquarters and register their names and Chicago address. This will give a good directory. Late Church periodicals will be kept on file.

The United Brethren Presentation Meeting will be in the Memorial Art Palace September 14.

The Denominational Congress, First Presbyterian Church, corner 21st and Indiana Avenue, September 12 to 15.
